

LIST OF EDITS TO “YOUR LIFE ON THE LIST” By: Derek W. Logue of OnceFallen.com

“Your Life on The List”, the sex offense registry survival guide was first available in August 2020. The printed copies of the book were first made available in September 2020. The Free PDF Version is updated regularly when errors are discovered or new info is added. This page is intended to cover any major changes (i.e., any important info altered or added and not just minor grammar/ typo fixes) in the event you have an older copy of the book.

October 8, 2020 edits:

1. In Chapter 5, on page 58-59, the entire section "LEOs and the Public Duty Doctrine" is deleted as it was intended for Chapter 8
2. In Chapter 8, Scammers/ Vigilante chapter, under the segment “learn the self-defense laws in your state”, the following statement about Pepper Spray use/ ownership is added: “According to the website MDCreekmore.com, as of 2019, six states – CA, FL, MA, MN, NJ, and NY all prohibit those convicted of felonies and/or assault (which I assume would include sexual assault) are prohibited from carrying pepper spray. (See <https://mdcreekmore.com/pepper-spray-laws-by-state-a-simple-cheat-sheet-with-all-you-need-to-know/>)”
3. Under "Wisconsin" laws in Appendix 2, in the spot where it says "Registry fees: None", replace "none" with "$100 annually (WS §301.45(10))”
